Tampa, Florida — If you're looking for a new home, you may want to try Tampa. It's set to be one of the best places to live in the U.S. by 2025. The Tampa Bay Times reports the region is projected to grow by 20 percent between 2016 and 2026. Five out of every eight new residents who move to Tampa will be non-Hispanic whites, up from four out of every eight in 2016. "This is a historic moment in Tampa," said Mayor Bob Buckhorn. "This entire region is booming. We're going to put Tampa on the map as the number one place to live." But not everyone is pleased with the growth plans. "The project is alarming," said Dr. Paul McCabe, president and CEO of the Tampa Bay Health Foundation, about the Tampa Metropolitan Area Planning Council's report on the region's future. "I think there are a lot of things that could be done to mitigate some of the increased traffic and congestion that come with it." TAMPA BAY REGION. GROWTH PLANS RELEASED. Field of the Invention The present invention relates generally to filters and, more specifically, to a support system for a filtering system. 2. Description of the Related Art Some filtering systems include a filtering system housing with an inlet port and an outlet port. A filter cartridge is removably positioned within the housing. The filter cartridge includes a filter material through which an airflow can pass. Typically, the filter cartridge includes a filter material that removes contaminants from the air as the air is drawn through the filter material from the inlet port, across the filter material and into the outlet port. Some filtering systems include a back pressure regulation device in the form of a spring, for example, to improve the purification performance of the filtering system by maintaining a
